If as much disposition will be shown by employers to adjust industry and its problems as the two they hire, the massibility of trouble to will be reduced to a minemum.

"The worker who in peace times was able to earn $12 a week has under war wages and war overtime frequently been enabled to go home on row a might with $100 in his peace trace, sealing his week's wages. The many who has experienced this is not going to be willing to stand a matorial induction in it. It is true, of course, that he will be willing to forget the overtime work he has been putting in but even should there be a reduction in the east of living, which seeps unlikely the werker is not going to every a reduction of his wages to his pre-war basis. That, however, is a matter of the individual, rather than the union.

"Collective bargaining will solve much of that I feel that there should be continued excessence of the agency represented through the unional war labor board. The decisions of that baird, providing for a review of the wage awards every six months on the basis of changes in the cost of living and more particularly the awarding of the right of collective bargaining, if entered into thereighty and in larringer lous spirit by workers and employers alike, will do much to solve the problem through the operation of the shop compilers.

The reaction continued until the market stood at a viet loss of 41 to 5 teints. At them the felling was stead for with prices 20 to 20 points up from the horizon.

The market was dull but steady but the situation.

months selling about 15 to 25 points under last nights closing figures right after the call. This reflected some scattered Southern selling as well as realizing, but the offerings were well absorbed at the decline, partly by trade buying and prices firmed un again during the early trading. January contracts rallied from $2.50c to $2.50c, and March from $2.50c to $2.50c, and first few minutes, or back to about last night's closing figures. There was no change in the news from Southern submirised, and it was reported that slippers were finding it difficult to secure the cotton to fill their nonmitments without suffering a loss in the basis.

Realizing increased on the buige right after the opening, while there was size considerable Southern selling and prices broke rather sharply during the middle of the morning January contracts sold off to $2.50c and March to $2.50c, or 40 to $6 points not lower, but steaded at this level on covering and showed rallica of several points with business quiet arrund middley. There was some buying of March attributed to the French commission, but the built of the business was between it be for local and Southern account.

The middley raily carried January back to $2.50, or even with last night's close, while March sold up to $2.55, or within 15 points of that level. There was continued realizing, however, and later functuations were irregular, with the tone somewhat unsayted.

United States Steel and affiliated equipments railied at midday and other shippings were lifted by the streath of United Fruit, but rails developed an uncertain tone and utilities weakened. Twin City transit lost 3 1-4 points and Adams Express 45.

Balls, especially coalers, also head utilities, encountered further pressure in the final hour with moderate reactions elsewhere. The closing was irregular. regular

ROUND THE TICKER

Cotton.

New York.—Weig & Co.: While the buying basis has eased slightly on the rise, offerings are limited and futures remain far below the prices being paid freely for apot cotton in primary markets. We expect a further substantial advance. Carpenter & Co. Whenever the holders show willingness to sell the speculative long wants to do the same thing, and that means the birth of a reaction. Bond, McEnany & Co.: While a reaction is probable at any time now, we think it will be immediately taken advantage of for buying purposes, and we look for the market to work higher as time goes on.

New York.—Am very bullish long run; ion't believe in much decline, although tood reaction seems due, and would strengthen the market.—Paul Pfleiger to Cotter.

New Orleans.—The weather map re-mains cold and dry. Sentiment on the floor seems reactionary, but bullish traders are confident that reactions can not be carried very far.—Shepard & Gluck.

New York,—We have had spot hedging orders all morning, which brought scilers from outside who were buyers past week; general idea some bull feader sold out.—Hubbard to Reese. New Orleans - Uniform firmness spots invite replacing on reactions; however feeling contract markets rather towars further settling reactions before new year.—Clark to Cotter & Turner.

New York -Profit taking over year nd again evident and causing moderate recession. Don't expect any material decline, and think market purchase now.

Chicago—An advertisement should be inserted in the corn belt papers: Wanted—A winter corn movement. Chicago corn receipts are 75 to 125 cars daily, where 500 should arrive. Traders are conservative. They say corn is too high, but there is no corn at terminals.

BANK CLEARINGS

W. Warner & Co.
Chicago—An advertisement should be inserted in the corn belt papers: Wantcal—A winter corn movement. Chicago corn receipts are 75 to 125 cars daily, where 500 should arrive. Traders are conservative. They say corn is too high, but there is no corn at terminals. Weather was perfect in the corn helt, with no snow of consequence. Mainly without. Country elevator stocks of corn are reported very light and there are claims of oats stocks well reduced. Congress is working on a measure to handle and pay for the 1819 wheat crop. Corn helt says the farmer has no confidence in long continuation of gurranteed hog prices.—E. W. Wagner & Co.

Chicago.—Modern Miller: Winter wheat is well protected with snow and as in position to withstand zero weather. Record acreage in Southwest and high condition of plant are encouraging to farmers and uniters. Spring wheat acreage will show increase. It is likely that much wheat in the hands of the government will be released to millers. Conditions are more favorable.

Chicago .- Corn market continues un-Chicago.—Corn market continues under the influence of December corn. Chicago cash corn 2 to 5 up. Country roads improving and weather about perfect regards temperatures. Odd reports from the corn belt of farmers radiung corn. One provision expert estimates scientific feeding of hogs has reduced the amount to eight bushels of corn per hog. On this basis farmers getting over $2 per bushel for corn. Local bears have been fairs quiet for last 14 days owing to the recognition of the freak state of affairs, weather, gormout supplies, gic.—E. W. Wagner & Co.
